MANUAL IN TERMS OF SECTION 51 OF THE PROMOTION OF ACCESS TO INFORMATION ACT
20 OF 2000 ("the Act")

AS AMENDED BY THE PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION ACT, 4 OF 2013 ("POPIA")

Version 5 | Date of Revision: October 2023

This Manual constitutes the Eazi Access' PAIA and POPI Manual.

This Manual is compiled in accordance with section 51 of PAIA as amended by the Protection of Personal Information Act, 2013 ("POPIA"), which gives effect to everyone's Constitutional right to privacy and largely commenced on 1 July 2020. POPIA promotes the protection of personal information processed by public and private bodies, including certain conditions so as to establish minimum requirements for the processing of personal information. POPIA amends certain provisions of PAIA, balancing the need for access to information against the need to ensure the protection of personal information by providing for the establishment of an Information Regulator to exercise certain powers and perform certain duties and functions in terms of POPIA and PAIA, providing for the issuing of codes of conduct and providing for the rights of persons regarding unsolicited electronic communications and automated decision making in order to regulate the flow of personal information and to provide for matters concerned therewith.

PART 1 - INTRODUCTION TO EAZI ACCESS.

Eazi Access ("the Company") is a private entity which conducts business to provide a comprehensive offering that includes rental, sales, servicing, and training across a range of industries and applications. We are a 100% South African-owned company with an extensive footprint across the country and a growing presence throughout sub-Saharan Africa. We have the largest, most diverse fleet of equipment on the continent, which is backed by a strong network of skilled technicians and our commitment to providing 24/7 support to our customers. We have built a solid foundation and are consistently recognised by our customers for delivering an exceptional service. The factors contributing to our early success are still part of our company today with a strong focus on safety, our responsiveness to macroeconomic and industry developments, and our ability to develop innovative solutions that benefit our customers. The Company has offices in all Provinces in the Republic of South Africa. Christiaan Krüger has been duly appointed as Information Officer, to act as the person to whom requests for access to information must be made in terms of the Act.

INFORMATION RELATED TO POPIA

Introduction

POPIA requires us to provide you with certain information relating to how personal information that we process is, amongst others, used, disclosed, and destroyed. We have set out the required information below.

Information on how you can request your personal information under POPIA.

Requests for personal information under POPIA must be made in accordance with the provisions of PAIA. This process is outlined below.

If we provide you with your personal information, you have the right to request the correction, deletion, or destruction of your personal information, in the prescribed form. You may also object to the processing of your personal information in the prescribed form. We have attached the prescribed forms to this Manual for your convenience.

We will give you a written estimate of the fee for providing you with your personal information, before providing you with the services. We may also require you to provide us with a deposit for all or part of the fee prior to giving you the requested personal information.

Purpose of processing

POPIA provides that personal information may only be processed lawfully and in a reasonable manner that does not infringe your (the data subject's) privacy. The type of personal information that we process will depend on the purpose for which it is collected. We will disclose to you why the personal information is being collected and will process the personal information for that purpose only.

PART 5 – DESCRIPTION OF RECORDS THAT ARE AVAILABLE (section 51(1)(b)(iii))

The information available on our website may be automatically accessed by you without having to go through the formal PAIA request process.

PART 6 – A DESCRIPTION OF SUBJECTS WE HOLD RECORDS ON AND CATEGORIES OF RECORDS (section 51(1)(b)(iv))

PART 7 – PROCESS TO APPLY FOR ACCESS TO INFORMATION (section 51(1)(b)(iv))

A requester must complete the application form and submit same to the Company's Information Officer, at the particulars indicated above.

The prescribed form must be completed with enough detail to at least enable the Information Officer to identify the record, the identity of the requester; which form of access is required and the postal address or fax number of the requester.

The requester must identify the right that needs to be exercised or protected and specify why the record is necessary to exercise or protect such a right.

The Information Officer will process the request within 30 days, unless the requestor has stated special reasons which would satisfy the Information Officer that circumstances dictate that the above time periods not be complied with.

The requester will be informed in writing whether access is granted or denied. If, in addition, the requester requires the reasons for the decision in any other manner, he or she must state the manner and the particulars so required. If a request is made on behalf of another person, then the requester must submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request to the reasonable satisfaction of the Information Officer.

If an individual is unable to complete the prescribed form because of illiteracy or disability, such a person may make the request orally.

The application form is attached hereto, as well as is available at any of our offices.

The completed form must be accompanied by proof of payment of the prescribed application fee, as described below.

Upon receipt of the application form and proof of payment, as aforesaid, the Information Officer will consider the request. If the request is approved, the Information Officer will provide the applicant with a summary of fees payable in respect of the application. Upon receipt of payment the requested information will be supplied.

In the event of the application being denied, the Information Officer will inform the applicant and provide reasons for the decision.

PART 8 – PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION ACT, 2013 (Section 51(1)(c)(i-iv))

In terms of the Protection of Personal Information Act, 2013, the Company is required to detail how and what personal information it processes. The details of this are available on the Company's website under the Website POPIA Policy.

The Company does not plan to transfer personal information across borders out of SA, but it may do so to secure or backup the data, or for operational or technical reasons. The nature of cloud computing means that some data may be transferred across borders. Where it is within the Company's control, it will only transfer data to other countries who have similar privacy and data protection laws as our own.

PART 9 – INFORMATION SECURITY (section 51(1)(c)(v))

The Company is committed to ensuring that your personal information is secure. In order to prevent unauthorised access or disclosure to such information, the Company has put in place appropriate physical, electronic and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect. The Company secures its data by maintaining reasonable measures to protect personal information from loss or misuse and unauthorised access, disclosure, alteration, and destruction.

The Company also takes reasonable steps to keep personal information accurate, current, complete, and reliable for its intended use.

PART 10 - OBJECTION

POPIA provides that a data subject may object, at any time, to the processing of personal information by the Company, on reasonable grounds relating to his/her particular situation, unless legislation provides for such processing. The data subject must complete the prescribed form attached hereto as Annexure 4 - FORM 1 - Objection to the processing of personal information in terms of section 11(3) of POPIA Regulations relating to the protection of personal information, 2018 [Regulation 2] and submit it to the Information Officer at the postal or physical address, facsimile number or electronic mail address set out above.

PART 11 - CORRECTION

A data subject may also request the Company to correct or delete personal information about the data subject in its possession or under its control that is inaccurate, irrelevant, excessive, out of date, incomplete, misleading or obtained unlawfully; or destroy or delete a record of personal information about the data subject that the Company is no longer authorised to retain records in terms of POPIA's retention and restriction of records provisions.

A data subject that wishes to request a correction or deletion of personal information or the destruction or deletion of a record of personal information must submit a request to the Information Officer at the postal or physical address, facsimile number or electronic mail address set out above on the form attached hereto as Annexure 5 - FORM 2 - Request for correction or deletion of personal information or destroying or deletion of record of personal information in terms of section 24(1) of POPIA's Regulations relating to the protection of personal information, 2018 [Regulation 3]

PART 12 - PROOF OF IDENTITY

Proof of identity is required to authenticate your identity and the request. You will, in addition to this prescribed form, be required to submit acceptable proof of identity such as a certified copy of your identity document or other legal forms of identity.

PART 13 - TIMELINES FOR CONSIDERATION OF A REQUEST FOR ACCESS

Requests will be processed within 30 (thirty) days, unless the request contains considerations that are of such a nature that an extension of the time limit is needed. Should an extension be required, you will be notified, together with reasons explaining why the extension is necessary.

PART 14 - GROUNDS FOR REFUSAL OF ACCESS AND PROTECTION OF INFORMATION

There are various grounds upon which a request for access to a record may be refused. These grounds include:

- the protection of personal information of a third person (who is a natural person) from unreasonable disclosure;
- the protection of commercial information of a third party (for example: trade secrets; financial, commercial, scientific, or technical information that may harm the commercial or financial interests of a third party);
- if disclosure would result in the breach of a duty of confidence owed to a third party;
- if disclosure would expose or compromise the safety of an individual or prejudice or impair certain property rights of a third person;
- if the record was produced during legal proceedings, unless that legal privilege has been waived;
- if the record contains trade secrets, financial or sensitive information or any information that would put the company at a disadvantage in negotiations or prejudice it in commercial competition; and/or
- if the record contains information about research being carried out or about to be carried out on behalf of a third party or by the Company.

Section 70 of PAIA contains an overriding provision. Disclosure of a record is compulsory if it would reveal (i) a substantial contravention of, or failure to comply with the law; or (ii) there is an imminent and serious public safety or environmental risk; and (iii) the public interest in the disclosure of the record in question clearly outweighs the harm contemplated by its disclosure.

If the request for access to information affects a third party, then such third party must first be informed within 21 (twenty-one) days of receipt of the request. The third party would then have a further 21 (twenty-one) days to make representations and/or submissions regarding the granting of access to the record.

PART 15 - REMEDIES AVAILABLE TO A REQUESTER ON REFUSAL OF ACCESS

If the Information Officer decides to grant a requester access to the particular record, such access must be granted within 30 (thirty) days of being informed of the decision.

There is an appeal procedure that may be followed after a request to access information has been refused, which will be described in the correspondence addressed to you by the Information Officer.

In the event that you are not satisfied with the outcome of the appeal, you are entitled to apply to the Information Regulator or a court of competent jurisdiction to take the matter further.

Where a third party is affected by the request for access and the Information Officer has decided to grant you access to the record, the third party has 30 (thirty) days in which to appeal the decision in a court of competent jurisdiction. If no appeal has been lodged by the third party within 30 (thirty) days, you must be granted access to the record.

PART 16 – FEES (section 54)

The fees applicable to an application for information shall be as per the prescribed fees. A schedule of these fees is attached hereto. The schedule attached is subject to change in accordance with changes to the prescribed fees.

An application fee of R140.00 is payable in respect of each application for information. Proof of payment of the said fee must accompany the completed application form.

No fees are payable by persons who request information pertaining to their own affairs.

PART 17 – GROUNDS FOR REFUSAL (section 55 and Chapter 4)

The main grounds for the Company to refuse a request for information relates to the—

- records that cannot be found or that do not exist;
- mandatory protection of the privacy of a third party who is a natural person, who would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information of that natural person;
- mandatory protection of the commercial information of a third party, if the record contains—
 - trade secrets of that third party;
 - financial, commercial, scientific, or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of that third party;
 - information disclosed in confidence by a third party to the Company, if the disclosure could put that third party at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
 - mandatory protection of confidential information of third parties if it is protected in terms of any agreement;
 - mandatory protection of the safety of individuals and the protection of property;
 - mandatory protection of records which would be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings;
- the commercial activities of the Company, which may include—
 - trade secrets of the Company;
 - financial, commercial, scientific, or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of the Company;

- information which, if disclosed could put the Company at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
 - a computer program which is owned by the Company, and which is protected by copyright.
- the research information of the Company or a third party, if its disclosure would disclose the identity of the Company, the researcher or the subject matter of the research and would place the research at a serious disadvantage;
- requests for information that are clearly frivolous or vexatious, or which involve an unreasonable diversion of resources shall be refused.

PART 18 - REMEDIES AVAILABLE WHEN THE COMPANY REFUSES A REQUEST FOR INFORMATION (section 77A)

INTERNAL REMEDIES (section 77A(1))

The Company does not have internal appeal procedures. As such, the decision made by the information officer is final, and requestors will have to exercise such external remedies at their disposal if the request for information is refused, and the requestor is not satisfied with the answer supplied by the information officer.

EXTERNAL REMEDIES (section 77A(2))

A requestor that is dissatisfied with the information officer's refusal to disclose information, may within 180 days of the decision, submit a complaint to the Information Regulator, or apply to a Court for relief, after exhausting the complaints procedure submitted to the Information Regulator.

Likewise, a third party dissatisfied with the information officer's decision to grant a request for information, may within 180 days of notification of the decision, submit a complaint to the Information Regulator, or apply to a Court for relief, after exhausting the complaints procedure submitted to the Information Regulator. For purposes of the Act, the Courts that have jurisdiction over these applications are the Constitutional Court, the High Court, or another court of similar status.

AVAILABILITY OF MANUAL (section 51(3))

This manual is available on www.eazi.co.za, as well as at the principal place of business of the Company for public inspection during normal business hours. This manual is available to any person and upon payment of a reasonable amount. This manual is available to the Information Regulator upon request.
